REAL ESTATE SHOWCASE

HOUSE PROUD

Luxury-seeking buyers should check out the view-infused 3BR Vela Townhouses on River Road in Edgewater, NJ. These three-story townhomes range from 3,617 to 5,200 square feet of indoor living under ceilings that rise from nine to 18 feet above hard wood floors, and up to 1,000 more square feet of roof decks with glass-enclosed solariums. Each and every one features private elevators, working fireplaces, and private two-car garages. Open kitchens boast walnut wood cabinetry and honed granite countertops and appliances from KitchenAid, Sub-Zero, and Viking. Marble master baths have glass-enclosed shower stalls, Kohler Tea-for-Two soaking tubs, and stylized vanities topped off with limestone. Communal pleasures include a waterfront infinity-edge pool surrounded by Thomas Balsley-designed landscaping. From $1.495 million. AVAILABLE NOW.

LIMITED EDITION

Set between Lexington and Third Avenues, 180 E. 93rd Street is now offering nine 3BR and 4BR homes, including PHs, with terraces and balconies featured in a few of the units. Ranging from 1,456 to 3,061 square feet, you'll find oversized windows, wide-plank oak wood floors with dark stain finishes, and working fireplaces. Kitchens are filled with hand-painted wood cabinetry with Pietra Cardosa slate worktops and appliances from Viking and Bosch. Every bedroom's ensuite bathroom is dressed in marble floors and walls and comes with separate oversized stall showers, soaking tubs, and custom-designed double sink vanities with marble tops. A remote home automation system allows for customized climate, audio, and lighting changes at the touch of a pad—and a security and surveillance system. Building amenities include temperature controlled wine storage, a fitness room, and playroom. From about $2.7 million. SPRING 2009.
